

TOK Calendar
Year 1
Date	What happens	What to do next
Aug.	DP Staff/Parent-students Induction Week: IB Diploma Students and Parents meet with CAS/TOK Coordinator/Teacher in preparation for their CAS/TOK Activities for SY	-Read the TOK Handbook
Sept.	- Introduction to the TOK program (initial briefings and workshops) - Handbook review	-TOK Reflection: Think about the ways you have acquired your knowledge -Familiarize yourself with the assessments and their criteria and rubric
Oct.	-Session on TOK assessment and criteria	- Prepare a mock presentation by choosing an RLS
Nov.	-Evaluation of the first draft of mock presentation	- Revise your draft based on your teachers comments
Dec.	-Mock TOK presentation submission	-Choose the final RLS and prepare a presentation following the criteria and rubric -Choose sources based on RLS
Jan.	- Evaluation of the first draft of final presentation and receiving feedback	- Revise the draft based on your teachers comments and feedback
Feb.	- Evaluation of the second draft of final presentation and receiving feedback	- Revise the draft based on your teachers comments
March	-Final presentation submission	Find the link among EE and CAS with TOK
April	-Session on CAS integration	-Evaluate and revise CAS based on knowledge framework rubric
May.	-Session on EE integration	-Evaluate and revise EE based on knowledge framework rubric

TOK Calendar Year 2
Date	What happens	What to do next
Sept.	-In-depth exploration of Ways of knowing and Areas of knowledge as topics for critical writing	-Choose one title from previously prescribed titles by IB -Choose resources -Write an essay on the chosen topic
Oct.	-Mock TOK essay submission  Week 4: Submit your first draft and receive feedback	-Plan the TOK essay based on the prescribed titles - Choose sources - Start working on the first draft - Consider the assessment criteria -Prepare yourself to hand in the first draft to your teacher, and get feedback on it and resource by the last week of month
Nov.	-Evaluation of the first draft of the final essay and receiving feedback  Week 4: Submit your second draft and receive feedback	- Keep working on the draft based on your teacher comment and feedback -Prepare yourself to hand in the second draft to your teacher, and get feedback on it by the last week of month - Start working on your final draft based on the feedback received
Dec.	-Evaluation of the last draft of the final essay and receiving feedback  Week 4: Submit your final draft and receive feedback if necessary	- Keep working on the final draft based on your teacher comment and feedback -Hand in the final draft to your teacher, and get feedback on it by the last week of month
Jan.		Prepare yourself for your TOK essay submission
February	-TOK essay submission	-Reflect on the importance and roles of TOK on helping you with universities applications and interviews