

From

IBO Official

Evaluation Report

February 2021

Commendations:

- The school leadership team and programme coordinators deserve commendations for their high commitment to leading in the spirit of the IB programmes, especially in MYP and DP.
- The school deserves commendations for providing excellent guidance to students for post-secondary options.
- The teachers deserve commendations for developing strategies to assess students' knowledge and understanding prior to new learning.

Commendations:

- The school deserves commendations for systematically planning interdisciplinary learning experiences.
- The school deserves commendations for promoting meaningful student action.
- The school deserves commendations for assigning the IB learner profile a prominent place and role.
- The school deserves commendations for using teaching and learning methods which promote inquiry and thinking.

Commendations:

- The school deserves commendations for developing the IB learner profile in all students.
- The school deserves commendations for using regular feedback to inform learning.
- The school deserves commendations for offering participation and reflection as elements of assessment.
- The school deserves commendations to fully adhering to the assessment philosophy of the programme.